REDUCTION SALE

Dry Goods and Ladies Furnishings

Having under contemplation extensive alterations in our store room, which, while in progress, practically stops business, we have decided to hold a general Reduction Sale now, so as to dispose quickly of a big lot of goods and make up for any time we may lose later.

This is not a scheme to dispose of a lot of unsalable goods, but a bona-fide reduction of fresh new goods in every department of our store.

Sale Began May 16

Our Store Was Closed All Day Monday, May 15,

To give us an opportunity to mark down our stock, as almost everything in the house, except some few lines of goods that are sold at restricted prices, we reduced. We will not attempt to mention prices as there will be so many tempting and seasonable bargains offered that the list would be bewildering. Come in to-day, and after that you will come often.

Land, Stock, Crops.

Gentry & Thompson, of Lexington, bought 19 mules of Thomas McClintock & Sons of Millersburg, at $155 per head.

Two months ago before the Burley Growers Company released all producers who had sold to them, tobacco was selling at an average of about 10 cents. Since this release, the growers are at the mercy of the trust, and prices have shown a downward tendency every day since. These figures should convince the most skeptical of the benefits of organization.

The condition of Kentucky crops is shown by the Department of Agriculture to be good. From the report sent out last week by Commissioner Vreeland the following figures are taken: "Wheat, condition, 90; per cent; oats condition, 90 per cent; rye condition, 93 per cent; tobacco, per cent of Burley sold, April 1, 63; per cent of dark tobacco sold, 53; price compared with 1904, 115.

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the Lexington nurseryman, says that so far the fruit is uninjured, notwithstanding the extremely cool weather and heavy frosts. Another authority says peaches will only yield a fair crop, as the recent frosts nipped about 40 per cent of the bloom. It may prove a benefit in the heavy budding being thinned so that remaining fruit will grow larger and become more matured.

S. C. Carpenter, of Millersburg, will ship 40 head of saddle, carriage and road horses to Atlanta, Ga., to be sold at public auction. Mr. Carpenter considers this the best shipment he ever made South. It includes several road horses that can go better than 230. He was offered $500 for two of the horses ten days ago. Mr. Carpenter recently sold five fancy saddle and harness horses to Eastern parties for $3,200.

The Paris Kentuckian reports the sale of several pairs of mules in Bourbon at $360 to $365. An offer of $350 was refused for another pair.

In Bourbon W. P. Hume sold his farm of 280 acres on the Clay and Kizer pike to A. C. Davidson, of Nemours, West Va., at $80 per acre.

That's what buying poor paint means. Paint may be low-priced by the gallon and be extravagant to use owing to poor covering power and wearing quality. After the paint is applied it's too late to save. Start right and use
